

TILDEN AN PARTNER DEFEAT NATIONAL INDOOR CHAMPIONS IN SENSATIONAL MATCH

OVER PIRATES OVER PENNINE Ogden Chosen to Win From Red and Blue in Opening Game Today

PALATKA'S BIG DAY BERNHARDT TO TWIRL

Jacksonville, Fla., April 6. Only rarely in the experience of a major league ballplayer does he actually enjoy exhibiting his superior wares to the gazing gaze of a rural populace. It is usually a bore to him to be subjected to the attention of spectators who are not of the same caliber as the professional ball player.

Palatka's game between the Athletics and Pittsburgh at Palatka, Pa. on the 25th of March. The game was a real treat to the spectators who were present in large numbers.

Burns Premier Slugger The feature of the game was the slugging of George Burns, the Philadelphia boy who gave the Philadelphia Athletics the lead in the first inning.

Promising Tennis Team With the team greatly strengthened by the addition of the New York American battery, Bob Shawkey and Schwartz, the balance of the team practically decided upon the national championship.

Faby Shows Poorly Faby and Faby were the hill performers for the Athletics. They were scored off the offerings of each, although the former showed vastly more than the latter.

Walker Makes Hit Walker was second only to Burns in the hero worship heaped upon him by the crowd. Burns was simply lionized.

DAILY BASEBALL YARN

From Training Camps

This echo of the long ago was revived at the Indian camp at New Orleans.

Far Hattie Berger, the old Cleveland pitcher, almost rolled off the chariot in an ecstasy of joy at the report.

He waited eagerly for a chance to spring it on some one himself.

What was the score, boys? "What was the score, boys?" you don't? shrieked Hattie.

Well, anyway, that's how Bobby Gibbs, the Yankee scout, tells the yarn.

TEAMS FROM EVERYWHERE

Camp Dix, the martial and salient of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, the naval operating base at Hampton Roads, Va.

The squad drill, the wall-scaling contest and the bayonet charge race should be great exhibitions of just what our soldiers and sailors can do under stress of competition.

The Marine Band of the Philadelphia Navy Yard will be present on Friday.

All the service units will be held on Friday, the 26th, with the exception of the 60-mile relay, which will be run off on Saturday.
